

GOLDSMITH AT HORNSILVER TO GET ATTENTION

Reno Men Become Interested and It Is Planned to Start Operations at Once

Reno people have become interested in the Goldsmith Divide Mining company, and plans are now formulating for the inauguration of a comprehensive campaign of development on the holdings of the company, which are situated in the Hornsilver district of Esmeralda county. It is stated that large funds will be placed at the disposal of the management, and on Monday night an auto load of interested parties arrived at Goldfield en route to the Hornsilver district, where plans will be formulated for the development that is to follow. Mining men who have examined the Goldsmith property say that it makes one of the finest mineral showings in the entire district. The ledge, which is heavily mineralized and which has great width, shows pay ore in every place that has been prospected, and at a depth of 50 feet the vein has a width of over 10 feet, with neither wall being in evidence. It is claimed that with proper milling facilities being available that the entire vein matter could be handled at a fair margin of profit. Dave Murphy, one of the moving spirits in the company and well known in Tonopah mining circles, is now at the seat of operations in conference with the Reno investors, and the idea is to equip the property with hoist in order that the work may be facilitated.

DEPOSED CITY PREACHER SAYS CHICAGO ROTTEN

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Rev. J. H. Williamson, recently dismissed as law enforcer for Chicago—the $10,000 a year position created by Mayor Thompson—preached his first sermon yesterday since he left the city. He said Chicago was "rotten from its center to its circumference." He said there were over 15,000 "hell holes" operating throughout Chicago under the guise of "coffee shops" and he added that "last year Chicago collected only $2,600 out of $1,944,444 in forfeited bonds, most of them criminal cases. Criminals are protected and their crime ring makes them immune."

TONOPAH MINING CO. POSTS EXTRA DIVIDEND

Tonopah Mining company provided a welcome surprise to stockholders by declaring an extra dividend of 2 1/2 per cent, in addition to the usual semi-annual distribution of 5 per cent. Both payments will be made Oct. 21 to shareholders of record Oct. 9. This extra distribution is the same amount as was posted six months ago.

ALL UP IN THE AIR

W. W. Booth, veteran newspaper publisher of Tonopah, got a bird's-eye view of Reno yesterday. He was taken aloft in an airplane. His comment at the finish was that it was almost as thrilling as editing a newspaper in Tonopah—Reno Gazette.
